- * Big news is coming on a replication that worked! WestEd will be reporting soon that they have replicated in North Carolina the results SRI found in Maine. They found: 1) teachers changed their practices, 2) ASSISTments reliably raised long-term scores, and 3) the intervention helped close persistent achievement gaps for low-income and under-represented-minorities.

- * ASSISTments received $2.8 million from the U.S. Dept of Education and NSF to help researchers propose studies in our E-TRIALS platform. Over a dozen researchers have published their own papers using E-TRIALS. Learn how to propose a study for us to run for you!

- * My students are on a tear with many papers accepted for upcoming conferences! They are reporting on randomized-controlled experiments on 1) non-cognitive experiments, 2) common wrong answers (this and this), and 3) using videos. We also have a paper that reports on the use of ChatGPT/GPT3.

Hi Neil,

I'm doing perfectly splendid! I'd love to come back to Worcester to catch up with the team and see how things are going.

Thanks for checking up!

Cox International Mail - Want to hard abot you

P.S. I've been enjoying the Fallout games recently. I don't know why I feel the need to mention that. There's just some immaculate storytelling throughout the entire series.

The games are great, but the show was lackluster at best. Oh, well.

Hi Neil!

Sorry if there was any confusion. Who the fuck is Bill Cox again, and what does "hard abot" mean in this context? Thanks!
See you in hell.

Taylor Cox.

TIP: You didn't forget about all that blackmailing did you?
